

You are receiving this email because your organization is a valued Service Canada stakeholder.

Do the members of your community or your clients have questions about Government of Canada programs or services? Are you unsure about the next steps they should take to get the government assistance they need?

The Northern Ontario Service Canada Outreach Team and the Canada Revenue Agency are offering free webinars on August 12th 2020 and August 26th 2020 to provide information about federal government programs and services that could benefit the members of your community.

- Get information about the support available to Individuals, Families, Students, Seniors and Businesses from Canada's COVID-19 Economic Response Plan.
- Find out how to contact us for help with your Employment Insurance, CERB or Canadian Pensions.
- Learn about how to apply for a Social Insurance Number Online!
- Learn about free Tax clinics.

Join from anywhere! The presentations are delivered via WebEx technology, with the audio portion provided via telephone. Choose to attend the webinar that works best for your schedule. If you do not have access to a computer or device to join the WebEx – do not worry, you can still participate via Telephone to listen in.
